

Gettysburg Flag® Works

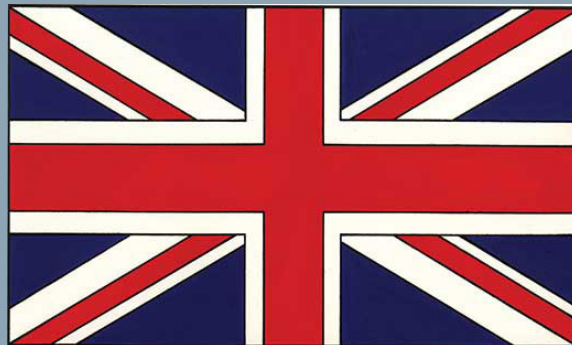

P R E S E N T S

MORE THAN YOU NEEDED TO KNOW

CANADIAN FLAG

GETTYSBURGFLAG.COM

The Union Jack Flag has a long history all over the world. In the early days, it was used in Canada because settlers came from England!

The Union Jack

Used before and after past confederation of Canada in 1867

EST. 1890's
The Canadian Red Ensign

An official naval flag since 1870 and saw many iterations over time.

This Flag was very popular during WW1.

This version of the flag took on a new look, as their coat of arms was changed and granted by King George the fifth.

EST. 1921

Canadian Red Ensign

With The National Coat Of Arms

The Last Flag Standing

Public opinion began to take over, and the search for a new national flag was off!

A mixture of influence from England, France and Canada itself

The Winner EST. 1965

The "Pearson Pennant"

Get your very own Canadian flag at: gettysburgflag.com and follow us for other news, fun facts and special offers.

GETTYSBURGFLAG.COM